

The Concept of Industrial Self Control in the Fruit Juice Industry

Carlos Abboud

Member of Executive Committee of SGF INTERNATIONAL E. V.

SGF Structure and pillars of SGF Control Work

2

Facts and figures

3

- ❑ Sure – Global – Fair founded 1974
- ❑ Non governmental organisation (NGO)
- ❑ Non profit organisation
- ❑ ~ 680 members
- ❑ More than 60 countries
- ❑ Yearly more than 6000 samples
- ❑ Largest database on authentic samples
- ❑ Annual budget of approx. 3 Mio Euro
- ❑ Registered in Frankfurt/Main, Germany
- ❑ 23 committed staff members
- ❑ 20 very experienced inspectors world-wide
- ❑ Controlling > 90 % of European JC* imports

Industrial self-control along the supply chain

4

Requirements

National legislation

International agreements

Regional (EU) legislation

Industry tools

Consumers tests

Fruit and farmer

Fruit processor

Logistic services

Trader / broker

Packer consumer products

Retailers

Consumer

Industrial self control

Ensuring compliance with requirements

SGF-Control Scope

5

Safety and Health:

- hygiene audits
- product analyses

Sustainability and Fairness:

- Code of Conduct

Authenticity and Quality:

- Plant inspections
- Product analyses

Traceability and Labelling:

- traceability checks
- Code of Labelling

Benefits of Industrial Self Control for Members and Industry

6

Development new analytical approaches and techniques to improve inward controls

Protection against unjustified attacks and allegations

Contribution to equal implementation of legislation, industry standards and thus fair competition

Involvement of retailers in quality commitments and corrective actions

Platform for exchange of experience and know how and meeting point for the industry

For more information

Please visit our website www.sgf.org

Thank you for your attention!!

